

Kane County Bar Foundation Request for Funds

The Kane County Bar Foundation acknowledges the ever-increasing unfulfilled legal needs of local citizens. In response, each year the Kane County Bar Foundation is proud to be able to offer funds to a variety of agencies serving the legal needs of the residents of Kane County. These funds encourage and reward cooperation and creativity among agencies to develop new and innovative programs and resources to better meet the legal needs of the community.

Eligibility to Apply

The Kane County Bar Foundation recognizes non-profit agencies as eligible to apply for this offering. Only one application will be accepted per agency per funding year.

Unless otherwise noted, all submissions are to be mailed to:

Beneficence Committee
c/o Kane County Bar Foundation
P.O. Box 571
Geneva IL 60134

General Grant Process

- ✓ The full application is due no later than July 1st of each granting year.
- ✓ Grant award funds will be distributed by September 1st of the same year.
- ✓ All grant funds must be encumbered or expended by the grantee no later than June 30th of the granting year.
- ✓ Applicants must demonstrate outcomes based on community need with supporting reports submitted by May 31st of the granting year.

Review Process

- This is a competitive process.
- The Kane County Bar Foundation Beneficence Committee will review applications and make a recommendation to the full Kane County Bar Foundation Board.
- Final recommendations for funding are made by the Kane County Bar Foundation Board.
- The Kane County Bar Foundation reserves the right to not award any grant funding.

Selection Process

Selection factors that will be taken into account include:

- Submission by application deadline
- Availability of granting funds
- Applicant's past grant performance

- Extent to which the proposed grant awards represent a reasonable use of the funds
- Possible duplication with government funded initiatives
- Breadth and populous served with grant awards

Funding Restrictions

- Costs incurred prior to July 1st of the funding year of the award are ineligible.
- The Kane County Bar Foundation will not award funds for sectarian or religious purposes or to political organizations or campaigns.
- The Kane County Bar Foundation's 501 (c)(3) status is not jeopardized by the applicant's request for funds, receipt or use of the funds.
- Any funds paid to the grantee and not fully encumbered or expended by June 30th of the granting year shall be returned to the Kane County Bar Foundation.
- Awarding of the funds does not obligate the Kane County Bar Foundation to provide any additional or future funding for extensions or continuations of the project.

Reporting & Accountability

The successful applicant will be required to submit a final report by May 31st of the granting year, outlining in detail what services were rendered, correlating statistics, and how many end users were served with the grant funds.

- Grant recipients must adhere in a timely manner to the reporting requirements herein outlined.
- More frequent reporting may be required at the discretion of the Kane County Bar Foundation Board.
- The Kane County Bar Foundation Board reserves the right to waive and/or amend specific application and/or reporting requirements, dates, and procedures on a case by case basis.
- Failure to comply with the aforementioned reporting and accountability requirements may result in:
 1. Ineligibility for competitive grants for one year, and
 2. The return of grant monies in full or in part.
